

United States Naval Academy

Annapolis

College Spotlight

Today's college spotlight is on the United States Naval Academy: Annapolis, MD

The Naval Academy prepares young men and women to become professional officers of competence, character, and compassion in the U.S. Navy and Marine Corps. Naval Academy students are midshipmen on active duty in the U.S. Navy. They attend the academy for four years, graduating with Bachelor of Science degrees and commissions as ensigns in the Navy or second lieutenants in the Marine Corps. Naval Academy graduates serve at least 5 years in the Navy or Marine Corps. The Academy offers 25 majors with a faculty to student ratio of 8:1.

Tuition – The tuition is a full scholarship including room and board on campus and medical and dental coverage.

Admissions Requirements: Requirements include, military eligibility, fitness assessment, medical exam, transcript and a personal interview.

For Admissions information- call the admissions office at 410-293-1858.

To request information or to schedule a tour, visit their website at:

www.usna.edu