55,912 Electronic Journals!

Did you know that Clarion University Libraries provide access to 55,912 electronic journals?

These journals contain millions of articles on almost every conceivable subject.

Here are some numbers that might interest you:

- 55,999 Total number of journal titles available to you
- 55,912 Electronic titles
- 86 Print titles
- 1 Microform title (active)
- 25,377 Open Access journals (free to reader)
- $3,240 Most expensive individual journal title (Human Relations. We have dropped numerous others more expensive in recent years)
- $1,263 Average cost of U.S. published academic journals
- $2,025 Average cost of foreign published academic journals
- $384,413 Clarion's cost of journals & journal databases last year
- 3%-7% Typical annual cost increase per title

Where do you find these journals?

You can access most of them by going to the Library Web page, finding the green "Research" box, and clicking on the Journals A-Z link. There you can either search for a specific title or browse the list by title or subject categories.

The Databases A-Z link provides information and access to all of the databases to which the Libraries subscribe. Links to the majority of the journals are available here. Two databases that include thousands of academic journals on a wide range of topics are Academic Search Complete and ProQuest Direct. Most other databases have a subject focus, which may be of interest.

Don't forget to check out the LibGuide, "Databases by Subject" that will direct you to databases on broad subject categories such as Business Administration, Education, Psychology, and others. Locate this LibGuide quickly by clicking its title in the green "Research" box on the Libraries homepage.

If you have questions or need assistance, stop by the Libraries or call Carlson Library at 393-2490. Clarion Online distance education students may call toll-free at 866-272-5612, (press 5 for Library). Remember that our Chat and other online services are available at the Ask a Librarian! LibAnswers! link on our Website.

600,000 Words...3 Million Quotations...1,000+ Years of English

The Oxford English Dictionary (OED) is widely regarded as the accepted authority on the English language. It is an unsurpassed guide to the meaning, history, and pronunciation of 600,000 words—past and present—from across the English-speaking world.

As an historical dictionary, the OED is very different from dictionaries of current English where the focus is on present-day meanings. You will still find present-day meanings in the OED, but you will also find the history of individual words, and of the language, traced through 3 million quotations, from classic literature and specialist periodicals to film scripts and cookery books.

The OED is available through the Libraries Homepage. In the green "Research" box click on the Databases A-Z link, then scroll down the alphabetical list or use the link to jump to the "O" section of databases.

If you have questions or need assistance, stop by the Libraries or call Carlson Library at 393-2490. Clarion Online distance education students may call toll-free at 866-272-5612, (press 5 for Library). Remember that our Chat and other online services are available at the Ask a Librarian!/LibAnswers! link on our Website.

Got Newspapers?

What's new? What's in the news?

We have a LibGuide that provides information on all of the newspapers that the University Libraries subscribe to in print or have Internet access to, including archival issues. We have rich resources to local, regional, national, and international news.

At the University Libraries webpage, look in the "Help and Guides" blue box, then click on the link to LibGuides. Select the Newspapers and News Sources link.

The guide organizes the information into four categories:

- Pennsylvania Newspapers
  - organized by city of publication
  - includes links to the homepages of newspapers
- Newspaper Databases and Websites
  - newspapers from around the nation and around the world available through the EBSCO Newspaper Source, LexisNexis, and ProQuest databases
  - includes full-text news articles from hundreds of papers and news sources (including the Wall Street Journal (Online), CBS, and Fox News)
  - We recently added access to the full-text historical newspapers of the Philadelphia Inquirer (1860 - 2001) and the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette (1786 - 2003)
  - Online Newspaper Directory for the World provides links to newspaper websites throughout the world arranged geographically by continent and then country
- Newspapers in the Library Collection
  - focuses on the holdings of Carlson Library
  - hot links to the homepages of many of the newspapers
- Microfilm/Microfiche User Instructions
  - "how-to" instructions and helpful hints for accessing and using the historical newspapers that we have on microfilm and microfiche

If you have questions or need assistance, stop by the Libraries or call Carlson Library at 393-2490, or Clarion Online distance education students may call toll-free at 866-272-5612, (press 5 for Library). Our Chat and other online services are available at the Ask a Librarian! / LibAnswers! link on our Website.

Collaborative Study & Presentation Rooms

Do you need a place to practice a presentation or to work on a group project aided by a computer?

Five study rooms on Levels A and 1 in Carlson Library are equipped with large, flat-screen monitors making it easy for students to work on group projects, or collaborate as a study group and work together more effectively. You may connect your laptop with the cable provided, or borrow a laptop at the Circulation Desk near the entrance.

A webcam is available at the Circulation Desk to provide the opportunity to practice, record, and critique presentations, or to involve others in a collaboration via software such as Zoom or Skype.

Technical assistance is available at the S.W.A.T. (Students Who Assist [with] Technology) Service Desk on Level A.

Two similar, but portable, units are available in the Charles Suhr Library and Learning Commons on the Venango Campus.

The equipment in the collaborative study & presentation rooms is made possible by Student Technology Fees and the Center for Computing Services.

The S.W.A.T. Minion's Tip: Just The Fax!

Do you need to fax a document? Although we don't have a fax machine, we can help you! The printer/scanner/copier on Level A of Carlson Library is part of the answer.

Cranial Candy: Word Of The Week...

Victorian

PRONUNCIATION:

(vik-TOR-ee-uhn)

MEANING:

adjective:

1. Prudish; outdated; exaggeratedly proper; hypocritical.
2. Relating to the period of the reign of Queen Victoria (1837-1901).
3. Relating to ornate architecture, furnishings, etc., characteristic of the period.

ETYMOLOGY:

After Queen Victoria of England (1819-1901). Earliest documented use: 1839.

USAGE:

“We’ve been discussing how she’s not allowed to be alone with a boy until she’s twenty-five;”

Evan smiled. ‘How very Victorian of you.’”

Roni Loren; Forever Starts Tonight; InterMix Books; 2014.

Although we do not “repair” computers, the S.W.A.T. Team
(Students Who Assist [with] Technology)
on Level A of Carlson Library is always happy to help.
Having an issue? Let us take a swat at it!

Something To Think About:

*Do not judge by appearances.
A rich heart may be under a poor coat.
