We publish INSIDE The CU Libraries weekly, when classes are in session. Here we share information about our services and resources with the campus community. Current and back issues are available online through the NEWS link on the Libraries' homepage.

If We Don't Have It...We'll Fetch It!

Can't find the information you need in the CU Libraries or among our many databases? Let us know, and we will do all that we can to get it for you.

If it is a book that you are looking for and it is not in our collection, check out E-ZBorrow, an interlibrary borrowing service for books. You can find a link to it in the "Services" box, under Borrowing from Other Libraries on the Libraries' home page.

E-ZBorrow searches the catalogs of more than 50 other libraries, including those of large research libraries such as Pitt, Penn State, Carnegie Mellon, Penn, and Rutgers. Requested titles often arrive at Clarion within five days and you will receive an e-mail alerting you that the book is ready to pick up at the library. Clarion Online students will receive the book in the mail with a return address label to ship the book back when they are finished with it.

Students: Your E-ZBorrow Patron Login is 9 + your Clarion ID number. Get help determining your Clarion ID number.

Faculty and Staff: Your E-ZBorrow Patron Login is a series of leading zeroes followed by your employee ID number. (Use enough preceding zeroes to create a nine-digit number.) Your employee ID number is found on your pay stub.

If you cannot find what you need through E-Z Borrow (or if it is an article or other type of item), please use our regular InterLibrary Loan borrowing service using ILLiad software. ILLiad Logon permits users to create a profile that eliminates repeated entry of routine information. It also allows users to track requests throughout the process. When the item arrives, you receive an email. If the item is an article or book chapter that has been scanned, you receive a Web link (good for 30 days) to view, print, or save the item. Clarion Online students will receive the book in the mail with a return address label to mail the book back when they are finished with it.

To use E-ZBorrow and ILLiad InterLibrary Loan and borrowing services, you must know your MyClarion user name and Password as well as your Student or Employee ID number. Tutorials on both of these services are available at the Library Website. For more information or assistance, please contact: Ginger McGiffin at 814-393-2481.

Oxford University Press E-Books

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS

Clarion University students and faculty now have access to more than 16,000 e-books published by Oxford University Press.

Oxford University Press is considered to be one of the most authoritative publishers of research and scholarship. The titles cover a broad range of subjects across the humanities, social sciences, sciences, medicine, and law.

Oxford University Press e-books are available through a general search in PRIMO, our online catalog of holdings, and at the Oxford Scholarship Online website. The Press allows Full Chapter PDF downloads, and will require you to create a personal account to save titles for later viewing in their platform.

A LibGuide, E-books at Clarion University and E-reader Guide: E-book Information, provides information about how to access and use all of the e-books that Clarion University Libraries provide access to. This guide, and other guides to library information resources and services are available at our LibGuides website.

This database is available through the Libraries Homepage. In the green "Research" block, click on the Databases A-Z link, then scroll down the alphabetical list. If you have questions or need assistance, please contact a reference librarian at 393-2490, or Clarion Online distance education students may call toll-free at 866-272-5612, (press 5 for Library).

Our chat and other online services are available at the Ask a Librarian! / LibAnswers! link on our website.

Student Tip: Great Study Spaces

Carlson and Suhr Libraries are great places to study. They have comfortable seating, as well as plenty of desktop and laptop computers and iPads available for use.

You may also borrow a laptop computer or iPad for out-of-the-library and overnight use. Both libraries are wireless zones. If you have your own computer or other electronic device, you should be able to connect to it. If you need assistance, please ask.

Carlson Library has group study rooms on three floors and quiet study spaces on Levels 2 and 3. Suhr Library and Learning Commons has two group study rooms. If you need help locating or understanding information resources, reference librarians are available to assist you.

Social distancing protocols are in effect and the proper wearing of masks over your nose and mouth are mandatory.

The S.W.A.T. Minion's Tip: About Those "Free" Apps...

A news study says that many so-called "free" apps that display ads are sucking the life right out of your smartphone's battery and taking up chunks of your data plan.

Many users choose free versions of apps instead of paying anywhere from 99¢ to $12.99 for ad-free paid versions. It turns out that this can cost you in the end. Free apps that are ad-supported use 16% more energy than apps without ads. The study compared 21 apps from the Google Play store, and found that the free apps with ads cut battery life on the phone by more than 2 hours.

They also take up nearly 25% more memory in your phone and can use a whopping 80% more network data, partly because the ads contain content that must be downloaded. If you are on a plan with data limits, it can really gobble up your time.

Researchers at USC, Rochester Institute of Technology, and Queen's University say these apps make your phone run slower overall. Researchers say the battery draining effects probably are not intentional. Some developers just do not consider battery life and data usage when adding ads to their apps.

People have come to expect free apps and can be reluctant to pay for them. However, it is impossible for a developer to maintain the servers and support for an app without money coming in, and ads generate income. In fact, many find them preferable to the other way developers can generate money from free apps, which is to sell your information to advertisers.

Cranial Candy: Word Of The Week...

UNCO

PRONUNCIATION:

(UHNG-koh)

MEANING:

adjective: Unusual; remarkable; strange.

adverb: Remarkably; extremely.

noun: 1. A stranger. 2. News.

ETYMOLOGY:

A variant of uncouth, from uncuth, from un- (not) + cuth (known), from cunnan (to know). Ultimately from the Indo-European root gno- (to know), which also gave us know, recognize, acquaint, ignore, diagnosis, notice, normal, agnosia, anagnorisis, prosopagnosia, cognize, gnomon, and kenning. Earliest documented use: 1410.

USAGE:

"You're unco late, dear,' she would say wearily."

George Douglas Brown; The House with the Green Shutters; McClure, Phillips & Co.; 1902.

"Each tells the uncos that he sees or hears."

Robert Burns; The Cotter's Saturday Night; 1785.

Although we do not "repair" computers, the S.W.A.T. Team (Students Who Assist [with] Technology) on Level A of Carlson Library is always happy to help. Having an issue? Let us take a swat at it!
