We publish INSIDE The CU Libraries weekly, when classes are in session. Here we share information about our services and resources with the campus community. Current and back issues are available online through the NEWS link on the Libraries' homepage.

Online Information Resources & Support

CLARION ONLINE
ACCREDITED. accessible. ANYWHERE.

When you take classes online and may be in a remote location, you face unique challenges in gaining access to the information resources and services that you need to be successful. The University Libraries are committed to doing all that we can to address your needs.

We suggest that you watch the brief video, Introduction To CU Libraries. This is an excellent introduction to our Virtual Library Services. Please don't hesitate to contact us when you have questions.

Guides to our services and resources can be accessed through the Libraries' homepage. Click on the For Clarion Online Students link in the blue "Services" box, and you will find information on:

- Our toll-free phone number
- Ask-A-Librarian service
- Information available through our website
- How to search for a book, journal article, or other information source
- Links to guides and tutorials
- Getting books and journal articles from other libraries
- And much more.

When you need help identifying and accessing information resources or other library related matters, contact the University Libraries using any of these:

- Toll free number: 866-272-5612 (press 5 for the Library).
- Go to the Libraries' homepage and
 - Click Chat Live With a Librarian link to connect with a reference librarian via computer - in real time
 - Click Ask A Librarian to have a Zoom session with a librarian
 - Click Ask A Librarian to send an e-mail that a reference librarian will usually answer in 24 hours – or less!

423,520+ E-Books!

Did you know that Clarion University Libraries provide access to more than 423,520 electronic books?

If you are looking for scholarly research materials, such as those your professors prefer their students to use, our Discovery Search Box and Primo (the online catalog of library book and media holdings) provide access to major collections of electronic books such as:

For information about e-book use and download options, check out our E-book LibGuide.

Did you know:

- Not all publishers will sell e-books to libraries
- Libraries can't purchase e-books from Amazon
- Some publishers withhold the availability of e-book versions until three- to six-months after the print edition is published
- Some publishers charge libraries three- to six-times the cost of a print edition
- E-books are licensed and many can only be used by one person at a time
- Some publishers limit the times an e-books can be used
- Some publishers don't permit academic libraries to enable the downloading of e-books

We are doing what we can to acquire more e-books and to make them available in formats that are easier for you to use.

If you have questions or need assistance, call a reference librarian at 393-2490. Clarion Online distance education students may call toll-free at 866-272-5612 (press 5 for Library). - Various other criticism series
- Dictionary of Literary Biography
- Encyclopedia of Literature
- A wealth of other resources.

Literature Resource Center is available through the Libraries Homepage. In the "Research Resources" block, click on the Databases A-Z link, then scroll down the alphabetical list or use the link to jump to the "L" section of databases.

If you have questions or need assistance, call a reference librarian at 393-2490. Clarion Online distance education students may call toll-free at 866-272-5612 (press 5 for Library). Our Chat, Zoom, and other online services are available at the Ask a Librarian! / LibAnswers! link on our Website.

The S.W.A.T. Minion's Tip: Save Early Save Often

There are many lessons to learn in life. One that many students learn (the hard way) is to Save Early Save Often.

We've all been there. You have invested a considerable amount of time on a Word document or Excel spreadsheet, when suddenly, the computer freezes, or the monitor just goes blank. All of your work is gone!

This should happen only once. After that, you will type a few lines and immediately save the document to a thumb drive or the cloud (Dropbox, Microsoft OneDrive, or some other such service). Remember... University computers do not allow you to save documents to the hard drive!

Don't stop there. Continue to periodically save your file as you work so that if (or when) a catastrophe strikes, you won't be re-creating so much of your work!

Cranial Candy: Word Of The Week ...

dégagé

PRONUNCIATION:

day gah ZHAY

MEANING:

Someone or something dégagé is very relaxed, not at all nervous, and not at all emotional.

PART OF SPEECH:

Adjective.

(Adjectives are describing words, like "large" or "late.")

They can be used in two ways:

1. Right before a noun, as in "a dégagé attitude."
2. After a linking verb, as in "Their attitude was dégagé."

USAGE:

We took this word from French, where it literally means "at ease" or "disengaged." You use it to describe people who are so chill that it's as if they don't care at all.

So, you talk about people who look, seem, or appear dégage, people who feel dégage, people who act dégage or pretend to be dégage, etc.

You can also have a dégage attitude, manner, air, personality, pose, or posture, and so on—sometimes toward or about something: "He's oddly dégage about his new fame."

Although we do not "repair" computers, the S.W.A.T. Team (Students Who Assist [with] Technology) on Level A of Carlson Library is always happy to help. Having an issue? Let us take a swat at it!

Something To Think About:

*The answer to peace is simple;
it begins with you.*
