

Call for Nominations

EQUITY AWARDS

Faculty, staff, and students are invited to submit nominations (see below) for the designated Equity and Presidential Awards.

Commonly Asked Questions

What are the Award Categories? The Award Categories consist of: Outstanding Community Award, Outstanding Supporter Award, Special Group Award, Outstanding Employee Award, Outstanding Student Award, and the Presidential Award. If and when warranted, a Special Equity Award may be awarded based on the specific equity theme.

Who may be nominated? Clarion University faculty, staff, and students who meet the eligibility criteria noted below may be nominated for the awards as appropriate. Local Clarion County community members may also be nominated for the Community Award.

What are the eligibility criteria for each Equity Award? Nominees should exemplify the qualities of equity, social justice, civility, fairness, compassion, and equality in either an academic or organizational setting. The individual(s) should have made outstanding contributions to one or more of the following areas: building a civil community and promoting the goals and principles of equity, social justice and equality. Each nomination must provide specific supporting information for the individual's nomination.

What are the eligibility criteria for the Presidential Award? Nominees of faculty, staff or students whose research, teaching or service in cultural and societal differences exemplifies the goals of equity, diversity and inclusion.

Should you have any additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact the Office of Social Equity at ext. 2109.
