

CLASS OF 1961 Honors Education Scholarship

Anna E. Olszewski has been selected as the first recipient of the Class of 1961 Honors Scholarship. Anna is a freshman from Boonsboro, Maryland, and has a major in early childhood education with a 4.0 quality-point average.

“ My overwhelmingly positive experiences with education and educators have inspired me to become an elementary school teacher...it takes dedication, hard work, and passion to become a teacher: I wouldn't want any other career in the world.”

A MEMBER OF THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE SYSTEM OF HIGHER EDUCATION.

Clarion university of Pennsylvania is an affirmative action equal opportunity employer.

The Class of 1961 thanks Clarion for its proud traditions and outstanding levels of scholarship which enabled each of them to achieve and maintain success in their professional lives.

This endowment was established in honor of their 50th anniversary of graduation.

When the Class of 1961 entered Clarion, it was strictly a college dedicated to producing outstanding teachers. To continue that tradition, this scholarship is earmarked for an outstanding Honors Program student majoring in education.

It is their wish that this scholarship enables a worthy student to achieve his/her goals and continue the standards upon which Clarion was founded—professionalism, high academic achievement, and strong sense of community.

Eligibility

- 3.4 or above quality-point average
- Good standing in the Honors Program
- Major in the College of Education & Human Services
- Dedication to teaching
- Demonstrated financial need