Definitions and Caveats

Public Property is considered the roads and sidewalks adjacent to, but not part of, university property.

Non-Forcible Burglary is the unlawful, non-forcible entry into a building or room with the intent to commit a crime therein. A forcible "breaking and entering" is not required. For example, entering a residence hall room through an unlocked or open door for the purpose of committing theft is a non-forcible burglary.

Statistics for Liquor Law Referrals and Drug Law Referrals reflect incidents where arrests were not made for those violations but were instead handled through the university's student disciplinary system.
