KNOX
Borough councilperson Sue Gerick, in a learning mode as the borough's 16th president, said Oct. 4 to members of Clarion Borough Council that her first goal is to handle the situation. It was decided the full-time officer position would be advertised starting Oct. 3. It would take 90 days for applications to be reviewed.
Council approved the interview process. Council members are free to speak with council members and have the option of participating in on the interview. The council would then con- rule on the final job seeker.

Knox council approves police hiring plan
By Greg V. Renninger
KNOX - Borough councilperson Sue Gerick, in a learning mode as the borough's 16th president, said Oct. 4 to members of Clarion Borough Council that her first goal is to handle the situation. It was decided the full-time officer position would be advertised starting Oct. 3. It would take 90 days for applications to be reviewed.
Council approved the interview process. Council members are free to speak with council members and have the option of participating in on the interview. The council would then con- rule on the final job seeker.

Knox council approves police hiring plan
By Greg V. Renninger
KNOX - Borough councilperson Sue Gerick, in a learning mode as the borough's 16th president, said Oct. 4 to members of Clarion Borough Council that her first goal is to handle the situation. It was decided the full-time officer position would be advertised starting Oct. 3. It would take 90 days for applications to be reviewed.
Council approved the interview process. Council members are free to speak with council members and have the option of participating in on the interview. The council would then con- rule on the final job seeker.

Knox council approves police hiring plan
By Greg V. Renninger
KNOX - Borough councilperson Sue Gerick, in a learning mode as the borough's 16th president, said Oct. 4 to members of Clarion Borough Council that her first goal is to handle the situation. It was decided the full-time officer position would be advertised starting Oct. 3. It would take 90 days for applications to be reviewed.
Council approved the interview process. Council members are free to speak with council members and have the option of participating in on the interview. The council would then con- rule on the final job seeker.

Knox council approves police hiring plan
By Greg V. Renninger
KNOX - Borough councilperson Sue Gerick, in a learning mode as the borough's 16th president, said Oct. 4 to members of Clarion Borough Council that her first goal is to handle the situation. It was decided the full-time officer position would be advertised starting Oct. 3. It would take 90 days for applications to be reviewed.
Council approved the interview process. Council members are free to speak with council members and have the option of participating in on the interview. The council would then con- rule on the final job seeker.

Knox council approves police hiring plan
By Greg V. Renninger
KNOX - Borough councilperson Sue Gerick, in a learning mode as the borough's 16th president, said Oct. 4 to members of Clarion Borough Council that her first goal is to handle the situation. It was decided the full-time officer position would be advertised starting Oct. 3. It would take 90 days for applications to be reviewed.
Council approved the interview process. Council members are free to speak with council members and have the option of participating in on the interview. The council would then con- rule on the final job seeker.

Knox council approves police hiring plan
By Greg V. Renninger
KNOX - Borough councilperson Sue Gerick, in a learning mode as the borough's 16th president, said Oct. 4 to members of Clarion Borough Council that her first goal is to handle the situation. It was decided the full-time officer position would be advertised starting Oct. 3. It would take 90 days for applications to be reviewed.
Council approved the interview process. Council members are free to speak with council members and have the option of participating in on the interview. The council would then con- rule on the final job seeker.

Knox council approves police hiring plan
By Greg V. Renninger
KNOX - Borough councilperson Sue Gerick, in a learning mode as the borough's 16th president, said Oct. 4 to members of Clarion Borough Council that her first goal is to handle the situation. It was decided the full-time officer position would be advertised starting Oct. 3. It would take 90 days for applications to be reviewed.
Council approved the interview process. Council members are free to speak with council members and have the option of participating in on the interview. The council would then con- rule on the final job seeker.

Knox council approves police hiring plan
By Greg V. Renninger
KNOX - Borough councilperson Sue Gerick, in a learning mode as the borough's 16th president, said Oct. 4 to members of Clarion Borough Council that her first goal is to handle the situation. It was decided the full-time officer position would be advertised starting Oct. 3. It would take 90 days for applications to be reviewed.
Council approved the interview process. Council members are free to speak with council members and have the option of participating in on the interview. The council would then con- rule on the final job seeker.

Knox council approves police hiring plan
By Greg V. Renninger
KNOX - Borough councilperson Sue Gerick, in a learning mode as the borough's 16th president, said Oct. 4 to members of Clarion Borough Council that her first goal is to handle the situation. It was decided the full-time officer position would be advertised starting Oct. 3. It would take 90 days for applications to be reviewed.
Council approved the interview process. Council members are free to speak with council members and have the option of participating in on the interview. The council would then con- rule on the final job seeker.

Knox council approves police hiring plan
By Greg V. Renninger
KNOX - Borough councilperson Sue Gerick, in a learning mode as the borough's 16th president, said Oct. 4 to members of Clarion Borough Council that her first goal is to handle the situation. It was decided the full-time officer position would be advertised starting Oct. 3. It would take 90 days for applications to be reviewed.
Council approved the interview process. Council members are free to speak with council members and have the option of participating in on the interview. The council would then con- rule on the final job seeker.

Knox council approves police hiring plan
By Greg V. Renninger
KNOX - Borough councilperson Sue Gerick, in a learning mode as the borough's 16th president, said Oct. 4 to members of Clarion Borough Council that her first goal is to handle the situation. It was decided the full-time officer position would be advertised starting Oct. 3. It would take 90 days for applications to be reviewed.
Council approved the interview process. Council members are free to speak with council members and have the option of participating in on the interview. The council would then con- rule on the final job seeker.

Knox council approves police hiring plan
By Greg V. Renninger
KNOX - Borough councilperson Sue Gerick, in a learning mode as the borough's 16th president, said Oct. 4 to members of Clarion Borough Council that her first goal is to handle the situation. It was decided the full-time officer position would be advertised starting Oct. 3. It would take 90 days for applications to be reviewed.
Council approved the interview process. Council members are free to speak with council members and have the option of participating in on the interview. The council would then con- rule on the final job seeker.

Knox council approves police hiring plan
By Greg V. Renninger
KNOX - Borough councilperson Sue Gerick, in a learning mode as the borough's 16th president, said Oct. 4 to members of Clarion Borough Council that her first goal is to handle the situation. It was decided the full-time officer position would be advertised starting Oct. 3. It would take 90 days for applications to be reviewed.
Council approved the interview process. Council members are free to speak with council members and have the option of participating in on the interview. The council would then con- rule on the final job seeker.

Knox council approves police hiring plan
By Greg V. Renninger
KNOX - Borough councilperson Sue Gerick, in a learning mode as the borough's 16th president, said Oct. 4 to members of Clarion Borough Council that her first goal is to handle the situation. It was decided the full-time officer position would be advertised starting Oct. 3. It would take 90 days for applications to be reviewed.
Council approved the interview process. Council members are free to speak with council members and have the option of participating in on the interview. The council would then con- rule on the final job seeker.

Knox council approves police hiring plan
By Greg V. Renninger
KNOX - Borough councilperson Sue Gerick, in a learning mode as the borough's 16th president, said Oct. 4 to members of Clarion Borough Council that her first goal is to handle the situation. It was decided the full-time officer position would be advertised starting Oct. 3. It would take 90 days for applications to be reviewed.
Council approved the interview process. Council members are free to speak with council members and have the option of participating in on the interview. The council would then con- rule on the final job seeker.