Respiratory Care; Associate of Science Degree Program Outcomes

1. Students will communicate in a concise manner in the health care setting relating appropriate and complete information.
2. Students will be able to apply comprehensive knowledge of respiratory care practices in response to clinical situations.
3. Students will demonstrate concern for the dignity and welfare of patients and other members of the health care team.