World Language; Bachelor of Science Degree, Spanish Concentration Program

Outcomes

1. Demonstrate listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills at the Intermediate-High level of the target language (Spanish) consistent with the National Standards for Foreign Language Education.
2. Demonstrate skills necessary to analyze and compare cultural products and practices of the target culture.
3. Identify and analyze major literary, historical and cultural products of the target culture and situate those products within a broad historical framework.
4. Demonstrate the ability to use library and technological resources that allow them to access and analyze literary works and cultural products and practices related to the target language.