

Associate of Applied Science in Administration Technology

1. Use technology effectively as an essential tool in office situations.
2. Apply business principles to office situations.
3. Demonstrate effective communication using both oral and written forms of communication.
4. Demonstrate appropriate technical skills in students chosen field of study.