

Philosophy; Bachelor of Arts Degree Program Outcomes

1. Students graduating with a B.A. in Philosophy will be able to identify multiple sides of complex philosophical issues.
2. Students graduating with a B.A. in Philosophy will be able to effectively construct and evaluate arguments in order to resolve complex philosophical issues.
3. Students graduating with a B.A. in Philosophy will be able to correctly identify and effectively evaluate the ethical aspects of complex philosophical issues.
4. Students graduating with a B.A. in Philosophy will be able to effectively apply historically important philosophical theories and schools of thought in order to resolve complex philosophical issues.