

BS Mathematics Concentration in Financial Mathematics

Program Learning Outcomes:

Upon completion of the B.S in Mathematics Concentration in Financial Mathematics & Actuarial Science, the successful student will:

- demonstrate a solid foundation in mathematics by their ability to solve a variety of basic and advanced mathematical problems.
- be able to correctly solve a wide variety of actuarial science and financial mathematics problems using both basic and advanced mathematical techniques.
- communicate effectively and clearly both in written and oral forms.
- demonstrate problem solving and critical thinking skills