

M.S. in Accounting (MAcc)

Program Outcomes

1. Graduates will be prepared to understand and analyze financial statements and financial accounting data.
2. Graduates will be prepared to make managerial decisions using accounting data.
3. Graduates will understand the importance of accounting information systems in business and be prepared to collect, disseminate, and utilize such information in the most effective and efficient manner.
4. Graduates will be prepared for most career challenges in the field of accounting and will be well-versed in the major aspects of public accounting, concentrating on taxation and auditing.