Master of Science Degree in Rehabilitative Sciences Program Outcomes

1. Students will be competent human services professionals.
2. Students will analyze the needs of clients/consumers, develop goals and design as well as implement a plan of action.
3. Students will be familiar with the range of human service delivery models.