

Associates of Criminal Justice

Learning Outcomes

Upon Successful completion of the Associate's Degree in Criminal Justice, students will be able to:

1. Upon completion of the Associates degree in Criminal Justice, students should be able to effectively delineate and explain the major branches of the American Criminal Justice System, particularly the roles and responsibilities of each of the individual branches.
2. Upon completion of the Associates degree in Criminal Justice, students should be able to effectively demonstrate their ability to comprehend and formally articulate how criminological theories are created, tested, and applied to explain individual and group criminal behavior patterns.
3. Upon completion of the Associate's degree in Criminal Justice, students should demonstrate an applied understanding of how criminological theory has specifically impacted law, policy, and program creation and evaluation in our nation.
4. Upon completion of the Associates degree in Criminal Justice, students should be to successfully identify and apply major discipline-specific concepts, techniques, and practices to their chosen criminal justice occupations.