

SECOND ANNUAL BLACK STUDIES MINOR SYMPOSIUM

Sept. 16
2020

1 p.m.-3 p.m.
EST

Register for the webinar at clarion.edu/bssreg

African, African-American, and Caribbean cultures, traditions and values are crucial to an understanding of the vital importance of Africa as a major player in global interdependence.

Learn about Black Studies courses and academic programs such as Building Bridges, The Center for Access, Success & Achievement, Minority Student Services and the Office of Social Equity.

The sankofa bird is a symbol originating in West Africa. It represents the need for one to reflect on the past to build on the future. In their academic studies, Clarion University students reflect on the past and build careers as future leaders.
