

Sociology and Psychology; Bachelor of Arts Dual Degree Program Outcomes

Upon graduation with a B.S. Sociology you will be able to:

- Communicate effectively using oral and written communication.
- Demonstrate knowledge of social theory.
- Demonstrate knowledge of the scientific method and demonstrate the ability to critically analyze written information within sociology.
- Recognize diversity and inequality in American society and its implication for social change and social justice.
- Develop skills useful in future employment and civic engagement.

Upon graduation with a B.A. in Psychology you will be able to:

- Demonstrate psychology information literacy.
- Interpret, design and conduct basic psychological research.
- Apply ethical standards to evaluate psychological science and practice.
- Adopt values that contribute to community building at both the local and global levels.
- Demonstrate effective writing in multiple formats.
- Exhibit effective presentation skills in multiple formats.
- Enhance teamwork capacity.
- Develop meaningful professional direction for life after graduation.
- Describe key concepts, principles and overarching themes in psychology.
- Develop a working knowledge of the content domains of psychology.
- Describe applications that employ discipline-based problem solving.

