

BS Integrative Studies: Library and Information Sciences

Learning Outcomes

After successfully completing this program, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of principles of libraries and information organizations in a contemporary society.
2. Demonstrate knowledge of public and technical services performed under the supervision of a librarian or information professional.
3. Develop and implement programs and services appropriate to specific user groups, e.g., children, senior citizens, etc.