

Speech Pathology and Audiology; Bachelor of Science Degree Program Outcomes

1. Demonstrate adequate knowledge of principles of basic science and normal development in relation to speech, language and hearing for entry level into the profession.
2. Demonstrate knowledge of characteristics, etiologies, and diagnostic and treatment methods for each disorder area within the scope of practice for Speech Language Pathology.
3. Apply and integrate discipline-specific knowledge to develop and implement appropriate diagnostic and clinical management plans, providing services resulting in evidence-based practice in speech language pathology.
4. Demonstrate knowledge of professional and ethical standards of conduct.

Speech-Pathology and Audiology: Five Year Bachelor's to Master's Degree Program Outcomes

Learning Outcomes

After successfully completing this program, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of basic human communication and swallowing processes, including the appropriate biological, neurological, acoustic, psychological, developmental, and linguistic and cultural bases, with the ability to integrate information pertaining to normal and abnormal human development across the life span.
2. Demonstrate knowledge of communication and swallowing disorders and differences, including the appropriate etiologies, characteristics, and anatomical/physiological, acoustic, psychological, developmental, and linguistic and cultural correlates across the Scope of Practice for Speech-Language Pathology.
3. Demonstrate current knowledge of the principles and methods of prevention, assessment, and intervention for persons with communication and swallowing disorders providing services resulting in evidence-based practice in speech language pathology.
4. Demonstrate knowledge of standards of ethical conduct, research principles into evidence-based clinical practice, and contemporary professional issues relevant to professional practice.