

Master of Business Administration Concentration in Accounting

Student Learning Outcomes – Graduates will be prepared to:

- a. Understand and analyze financial statements and accounting data.
- b. Make managerial decisions using accounting data.
- c. Understand the importance of accounting information systems in business and be prepared to collect, disseminate, and utilize such information in the most effective and efficient manner.
- d. Navigate career challenges that encompass accounting.