

Minor in Internal Audit – Forensic Accounting

Learning Outcomes

After successfully completing this program, students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate knowledge in the key business disciplines including accounting, economics, finance, management, and marketing.
2. Communicate effectively orally and in written forms.
3. Demonstrate analytical thinking skills through the interpretation of evidence; identification and evaluation of points of view; and through the formulation of warranted, non-fallacious conclusions.
4. Demonstrate effective use of technology and data analysis by understanding of data analysis and its use in business decision making.