

Minor in Professional Writing

Learning Outcomes

After successfully completing this program, students will:

1. Learn a variety of writing genres and forms drawn from academic and non-academic spheres.
2. Apply writing processes learned in first-year writing to compose texts based multiple genres and forms.
3. Learn the written genres and forms expected of them going forward in both academic and non-academic settings.
4. Compose texts across analog and digital platforms.