

Student Learning Outcomes – M.S. Clinical Mental Health Counseling

1. Students will select, administer and interpret mental health and assessment tools.
2. Students will select, administer and evaluate intervention techniques and strategies, including mental health counseling.
3. Students will understand ethical and legal requirements, and perform work in an ethical manner and in accordance with pertinent law.
4. Students will be able to develop a good working relationship with clients, colleagues, and supervisors.
5. Students will be able to communicate findings and recommendations in a professional manner.